Regular Duties Resumed-Company of Cadets to Visit Charleston, W. Va.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
Lexington, Va., September 17.—The number of cadets who have reported for duty at the institute continues to grow larger each day until now the barracks has almost reached the limit of its capacity, there being 348 enrolled. Two hundred and twelve of these are oid cadets, and the remaining 136, new. The regular academic and military duties have been resumed, filling each day with useful mental and physical exercises.

At the institute hour on Saturday, General Nichols made an address of welcome to the faculty and cadet body, urging upon each and every one devotion to duty, and the upholding of the high ideals and principals of the V. M. I.
